Converted house for sale in Glenwood

This neat converted house, centrally located on Bulwer road near the Woolworths center, is commercially zoned and ideal for retail or commercial use. It has excellent signage opportunities and is highly visible as well as bordering other commercial zoned properties and a shopping center. There is roughly 300sqm under roof including 2 outbuildings for storage or letting. The yard is fully concreted so there is an abundance of safe off-street parking as well as both and electric
